GENERAL MATTERS.

Maine Republicans Close their Canvass--What They Expect.

The War in Railroad Rates Growing More General.

Fresh Outbreaks of Cattle Disease--Official Suggestions.

The Maine Canvass

LEWISTOWN, Me., September 5.—Geo C Wing to-night sent the following telegram to Chairman Jones, of the national republican committee

The canvass of the state will cease to-morrow. It has been animated and thorough with the tariff the principal issue. We expect with confidence to carry both branches of the legislature, to choose four representatives to congress and re-elect Governor Robie by a popular majority of 10,000.

[Signed] GEO C WING,
Chairman Rep. State Comm.

To-night there was a great republican torch light demonstration. In the afternoon speeches were made in the park. Blaine introduced Judge West as follows: "I have the luxury this year, Mr. Chairman, of having speeches and not making them, and I only take this chance to acknowledge this generous reception, and to introduce to you one with whom my memory goes back to boyhood, to college days, a man whom I always loved as a brother. I will introduce to you Hon. Wm. H. West, of Ohio."

Democratic Hopes

NEW YORK, September 5.—Senators Gorman, Jonas and B B Smalley were in charge of the democratic headquarters to-day. State Senator James Pierson said: "I have been spending some time in Maine and I believe Rood will be beaten for congress. I was surprised to find so many republicans there against Blaine. Blaine republicans are, however, making desperate efforts for a large majority."

General Durbin Ward, Ohio, said: "We have hopes of Ohio. We have carried it in the last two October elections, and I see no evidence of defection. We have unfortunately our own internal feuds and strifes in the state, but they are rather personal and will not affect the canvass. Of course we shall have difficulty in carrying the state. We never have carried it in any presidential contest for thirty years. We have not carried it twice in succession for twenty years until the last two years. This fact gives me hope that the gain is permanent."

Congressional Nominations.

CHICAGO, September 5.—The second congressional democratic convention, Congressman Finerty's district, was held to-day, and after several names were placed before the body it adjourned until four to secure a pledge from those named to support the democratic ticket, state and national. Congressman Finerty, who has the independent nomination, declined to take the pledge, and when the convention reassembled Alderman Frank Lawler was nominated.

ST. LOUIS, September 5.—The democratic congressional convention of the ninth district of this city, nominated John M. Glover by acclamation.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., September 5.—In the fifth district Thomas W. Sadler was nominated for democratic candidate for congress.

CHICAGO, September 5.—A daily News Freeport, Ills., special says: Republicans of the sixth district to day renominated R. B. Hitt.

The Vermont Majority.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, September 5.—Returns from eight additional towns received to day increase the majority for Pingree, republican, as given last night, 20,739, by 625, making the total of 237 towns 21,364, leaving three towns to be heard from which will not materially change the figures.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., September 5.—Returns from 240 towns giving the complete gubernatorial vote of state show Pingree's majority 21,413. The proportional loss of republicans is about 14 per cent; of democrats 6½ per cent, reduction of republican majority 3,509. The complexion of the house of representatives is Republicans 198; democrats 84, greenbackers 4, independents 21. The next senate will consist of 27 republicans and three democrats.

Butler in Minnesota.

MINNEAPOLIS, September 5. General Butler addressed 15,000 people at the Minneapolis fair this afternoon on political oppression of the masses of the two great parties. He made no reference to himself or his party, but denounced republicans and democrats alike unsparingly. In the afternoon trades assemblies and citizens held a mass meeting.

Reading for Western Democrats.

CHICAGO, September 5.—The state central democratic committees of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan held a convention here to-day and arranged to supplement the work of the national committee by procuring speakers and circulating documents especially calculated to influence voters in those states.

A Republican Opportunity.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 5.—The supreme court decided to-day that the election for senators in the odd numbered districts, must be held this year. The decision is of importance to the republicans, as eighteen of the present twenty senators from odd numbered districts are democrats.

New Hampshire Greenbackers

MANCHESTER, September 5.—The greenback state convention endorsed Gen. Butler, nominated Geo. W. Carpenter for governor and Jno. F. Woodbury and J. E. Williams for congress. The platform of the national convention at Indianapolis was endorsed.

Fusion Favored

PITTSBURGH, September 5.—Allegheny county greenbackers passed resolutions advocating fusion with the democracy in this state.

Railroad Rumblings.

CHICAGO, September 5.—The announcement is made that directors of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, at their late meeting in Boston, elected General Manager Thos J Potter first vice-president of the company.

The statement is made here that the Union Pacific Railway company contemplates closing its offices in this city and St. Louis, which is taken as an indication that the company proposes to abide by the tripartite agreement.

NEW YORK, September 5.—Presidents of trunk lines held a meeting this afternoon for the purpose of agreeing on the maintenance of passenger rates. The prospects are good for adjustment.

ST PAUL, September 5.—An Omaha special says there is official authority for the statement that unless the present demoralization in passenger rates is settled by Sunday, when Traffic Manager Clark returns, open war will be declared on rates to Chicago. It is possible now to obtain a ticket on any road from here to Chicago at half rates and less.

ST LOUIS, September 5.—Representatives of a number of railroads between Kansas City, St. Louis and points in the southwest held a meeting here to-day to adjust live stock rates, but after a session of several hours without reaching any satisfactory agreement the meeting adjourned to Chicago, September 16.

CHICAGO, September 5.—E. A. Ford, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania company, was in the city to-day in consultation with representatives of other trunk lines on the question of the cut in passenger rates. While there was a general expression that full rates were preferred, it was admitted that the Fort Wayne was selling tickets to New York over its counter at $16 and it was agreed that agents of other lines make the same rates if permission could be obtained from the respective presidents. This was telegraphed for and no answer is expected to-morrow. It is rumored here that negotiations are now in progress in joint executive committee of the trunk lines at New York with fair prospects of settlement of east-bound freight pool troubles.

The conference to-day between the railroad magnates Thompson, Ledyard, King, Blanchard, Harnoll, Newell and Hayden has closed, but its result could not be ascertained. Manager Hyckson, of the Grand Trunk, and Vice President Blanchard of the Erie, repudiated the dispatch sent to Chicago by Commissioner Fink declaring that the war was opened by their roads. It is said the Grand Trunk line has notified the commissioner that it is not satisfied with the award and demands a revision.

Texas Cattle Fever.

WASHINGTON, September 5.—Acting Commissioner of Agriculture Carman issued the following circular relative to the prevention of the spread of Texas fever among cattle: "In view of the recent outbreak of Texas cattle fever in stock yards at Kansas City and Chicago and other points in Illinois and Kansas, I respectfully recommend at the urgent request of a large number of practical operators who believe this disease to be transmitted by cars on the line of railways and contaminated by yards, that all cars used in the transportation of cattle from along the border of southern Colorado, Kansas, southern Missouri and southern Kentucky northward shall be thoroughly disinfected; also that all cars used on lines east of Kansas City used in the transportation of stock to points southeastward be washed and disinfected immediately after they are unloaded; and further that all yards used for penning or feeding such cattle from southern points shall be cleansed and disinfected twice a week or oftener.

Another Outbreak of Cattle Disease.

CHICAGO, September 5.—A Daily News Springfield, Ill., special says a disease supposed to be either pleuro-pneumonia or Texas fever has broken out among cattle 12 miles south of here, and deaths have occurred in several large herds. The state veterinarian has been ordered to investigate and report.

Gov. Hamilton to-day received a telegram from Gov. Glick, of Kansas, asking if he would object to a quarantine of Kansas against Illinois. A reply was sent that in view of precautions taken in the state to prevent spread of disease he did not think such a course necessary.

Pleuro-Pneumonia.

PHILADELPHIA, September 5.—A special dispatch to the Press from West Chester, Pa., says: Pleuro-pneumonia has broken out among cattle of Wm. Dutton in Westown township, Chester county. The cows are quarantined.

Financial Difficulties

ST. PAUL, September 5.—The Evening Dispatch's Red Wing, Minn., special says. The Mazeppa Mill company made assignment to-day to W. H. Putnam. Liabilities, $140,000; assets, $175,000, capital stock, $170,000. Governor Hubbard is treasurer. The firm has been a sort of balance wheel to the Minnesota Elevator company. The obligations of the former to the latter are $53,000, which caused the failure of the Elevator company.

Business Failures

NEW YORK, September 5.—Business failures throughout the country in the last seven days number for the United States 199, Canada 14; total 213, as against 198 last week, showing an increase of 17. Casualties are still numerous in the western and Pacific states, while in other sections of the country the number of assignments is rather below the average.

Wholesale Burglarizing.

DULUTH, Minn., September 5.—Last night in Duluth there were no less than twenty-four stores and residences by actual count entered by thieves, after money alone. In many houses nothing was stolen and in none was more than $40 taken. The band seemed to be one under good leadership and working in a systematic manner. No arrests yet.

A Heavy Judgment.

NEW YORK, September 5. Judgment against Grant & Ward for $718,495 was entered in the county clerk's office to-day in favor of the Marine National bank on a suit brought for money loaned just prior to the firm's failure. No defense was entered.

A Heavy Jail Break.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., September 5.—Ten persons out of seventeen in the county jail escaped last night by sawing off several bars of the ventilating register on the floor. None have yet been captured.

HONORED DEAD.

The Treasury and Its Dependencies to be Closed

And all the Government Buildings Draped in Mourning

Out of Respect to the Memory of the Deceased Secretary.

The Dead Secretary.

WASHINGTON, September 5.—At meeting of chiefs of the various bureaus of the treasury departments to day, Comptroller Lawrence, Commissioner Johnson, Treasurer Wyman, Commissioner Evans and Solicitor Neal were appointed a committee to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of the deceased secretary. A number of treasury employees expressing a desire to attend the obsequies arrangements will be made if possible to run a special train from Washington to Geneva on the evening prior to the funeral, to return immediately after the ceremonies. The treasury department is closed to-day, the building being heavily draped with flags flying at half mast. Acting Secretary Coon will issue an order to close sub treasuries and custom houses during the funeral ceremonies. Acting Secretary of State Davis received a telegram from the president this morning directing that an executive order be issued formally announcing the death of Folger.

The secretary of state has addressed the following letter to the other members of the cabinet: "With deep regret I announce that Hon. Chas J Folger, secretary of the treasury, yesterday died at his home at Geneva, New York. This has closed the life of a distinguished and respected citizen, whose services as an executive officer of the United States, and as a legislator and judge in his own state, have won the esteem and regard of his countrymen. The president directs that all representatives of the executive branch of the government and offices subordinate to them shall manifest due respect to the memory of this eminent citizen in a manner consonant with the dignity of the office thus made vacant, and with the upright character of him who held it. To this end the president directs that the treasury department and its dependencies in this capital be draped in mourning for thirty days."

The several executive departments will be closed on the day of the funeral of the deceased and all public buildings of the government throughout the United States, the national flag shall be draped in mourning and displayed at half mast.

The telegram to Acting Secretary Coon from Secretary Folger's daughter says he was conscious to within ten minutes of his death. He dictated letters before he died and read his mail on the morning of his death.

GENEVA, September 5.—The funeral of the late Secretary Folger takes place Tuesday next.

New York, Michigan, Indiana and west fine, 30 to 33; medium, 33 to 35; coarse, 28 to 30; washed, combing and delaine, 31 to 38; tub washed, 28 to 35; combing and delaine, 23½ to 27. Oregon, 16 to 25. NEW YORK, September 5.—Governments easier, railways firm, state securities dull. Speculations at the stock market was characterized by great strength to day. At the opening the market was irregular, and declined ¼ to ⅜ per cent., the latter for New York Central, which fell off to 101½ on reports that the directors had reduced the dividend to 1¾ per cent. for the quarter. Later the market gathered strength on favorable reports from the corn belt, and a general advance in prices took place. Business was more active and leading shares were taken in round amounts for out-of-town account. The confidence with which the buying was conducted alarmed the bears, who experienced considerable difficulty in covering, as the floating supply of stocks continues light. The advance ranged from ⅜ to 2¾ up, making the greatest advance. New Jersey Central, however, was exceptionally weak, declining from 37¾ to 36⅜, but later returned to 37¾. In the afternoon there was a disposition to realize profits and prices ran off ¼ to 1 per cent, but this was followed by a brisk buying movement and at the close the market was buoyant at the highest figures of the day, with St. Paul, Union Pacific, to 80⅛, Chicago Burlington and Quincy to 14, Lake Shore 82⅞, Kansas and Texas to 19⅝, New York Central to 103⅜, Northern Pacific preferred to 49¾, and Union Pacific 51½. The borrowing demand for active shares was brisk. Michigan Central, Lake Shore, Central Pacific and Northern Pacific preferred lent at 1-64, New York Central 1-32 and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy at 1-16 per hundred. Compared with last night's closing prices are ⅛ to ¼ per cent higher, except for Louisville & Nashville, which is ⅛ per cent lower. Transactions 315,000 shares.

Mining shares were very dull. Caledonia B. H. sold at 40; California, assessment unpaid, 10; and Sutro, buyer 60, at 18.

A Dastardly Crime

COLUMBUS, Ohio, September 5.—A most deliberate and brutal murder occurred at Colonel Charles Parrott's mansion this morning. Jas Griener has been paying attention to Gretchen Seeling, a beautiful German girl of 20, and became frantically jealous of attentions from others and refused to leave the residence last night. At the same time he became very abusive and greatly disturbed the household. The girl then cried for help and Colonel Parrott coming to her relief got rid of Griener by turning in a call for the police. Grelner left the house, threatening that he would kill her during the night. This morning, about seven o'clock, just after Miss Seeling was up attending her household duties, Greiner effected a clandestine entrance through the basement of the mansion and shot twice at her, one shot taking effect in her breast, causing death immediately. Colonel Parrott, hearing the shooting, rushed down stairs, when Greiner shot at him, but missed. They grappled, when Griener shot again, but without effect. Then he struck Parrott on the head with his revolver and fled. Members were aroused, chased Greiner on the street, caught and held him till police took him to prison. An inquest on the body of Miss Seeling is being held to-day, amid much excitement.

A Great Mine Cave

WILKESBARRE, Pa., September 5.—The Enterprise mine at Port Bowkley, owned by Andrew Lansdon, of Buffalo, was the scene of the most extensive cave which has occurred in this region for years. Nearly one hundred acres of ground settled from four to six feet. The Lehigh railway track sunk five feet and traffic stopped for some hours. The slump in the mine was driven with the violence of an explosion, and forcing its way out of the shaft almost totally wrecked the works. Five houses belonging to miners were wrecked. The mine is ruined and full of gas and water from the river, the water pouring through a fissure in the ground. The mules in the mine were saved. Five hundred persons are thrown out of employment. The owner of the mine refused $50,000 last week for his interest in the coal left.

A second fall took place at the mine this evening, which now embraces fully 250 acres, extending from the Susquehanna up hill to the fan house of the mine, a distance of half a mile. The fall of rock this evening is thought to be immense. Before all the mules could be rescued six were killed. The loss will reach nearly half a million.

A Case of Fratricide

CHICAGO, September 5.—Wm H Downie, a member of the board of trade, was found dead in the basement of his house on Lasalle avenue to night with a bullet hole in his left temple. He was alone in the house at the time of the occurrence. The face was powder burned and the hair scorched. It was at first supposed to be a case of suicide, but further examination of the position and direction of the wound and the fact that no weapon could be found led to the conclusion that it was murder. He had a brother, Charles J. Downie, with whom he had frequent altercations in regard to an undivided estate, left them by their mother, these troubles leading to a separation yesterday after an unusually stormy scene and an attempt by Charles to brain his brother with an axe. This, with the fact that Charles once shot at William, led to a suspicion that it was a case of fratricide. Police arrested Charles on the way from the city to his suburban home and found on his person a revolver with one chamber empty.

Lives Lost at Sea.

LONDON, September 5.—Advices from New Zealand state that the large emigrant ship Lastingham, from London for Wellington, New Zealand, was wrecked in Cook strait, on which Wellington is situated. All on board except fourteen of the crew drowned.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., September 5.—A dispatch this morning from Trepassey reports a destructive gale Monday on the coast. On Tuesday morning an unknown vessel was lost with all hands at St. Shott's. Seven bodies were washed ashore.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., September 5.—The schooner Lily, of Bucan, capsized in the gale Monday and all hands perished.

Captain Traynor arrived in a dory at Trepassey yesterday. He intends to proceed upon his Atlantic voyage.

A Desperate Duel.

NEW ORLEANS, September 5.—A Times-Democrat Vicksburg special says: A difficulty occurred between Captain James L Metzler, a well-known river captain, and J. W. Bourne, deputy internal revenue collector. Fourteen shots were fired. Bourne died at 5 p m. It is believed Metzler will not live through the night. The quarrel grew out of Metzler's intimacy with Bourne's wife. Bourne fired the first shot, making an attack on Metzler who was conversing with others. After being shot down Bourne sent for his wife and children. Two children went to see their father, but his wife went to the bedside of Metzler. The sympathy of the community is entirely with Bourne and his unfortunate children. A suit for divorce between Bourne and his wife is pending.

Attempt to Assassinate Sitting Bull.

ST. PAUL, September 5.—It has just transpired that an effort was made at the Grand opera house Wednesday night to assassinate Sitting Bull. As he was leaving the theatre one of two unknown men suddenly drew a pistol and without raising aimed at the great chief, but his companion knocked the weapon down before it could be discharged. Both men followed the Indians out, but no further attempt was made. Sitting Bull is now constantly guarded, even at the hotel a guard being placed at the door.

Free Thinkers' Convention

CASSADAGA, N. Y., September 5.—Attendance at the free thinkers Cassadaga convention to-day was good. Miss Helen H Gardner spoke on "Men, Women and Gods." Prof. John S. Ramsberg, of Kansas, spoke on "Public Morals." In the evening there was an M. P. Bennett memorial service. Resolutions were adopted demanding complete separation of the church and state, taxation of all church property and the abolition of all religious services now maintained by the government.

Alarming Spread of Cholera--It Appears at Bordeaux.

Affairs in China

LONDON, September 5.—The French consul at Shanghai has been appointed minister to add at Hue, capital of Annam. It is believed Admiral Courbet, with the fleet, is near Hainan, out of the track of the vessels, repairing his ships after the engagements at Kelung and Foo Chow. The attack on Kelung was prompted by a desire to obtain possession of the coal mines which would prove extremely useful to the French in case war was declared and neutral ports closed. The Chinese frustrated this scheme by flooding the mines and destroying the pumping machinery.

PARIS, September 5.—A Paris newspaper says the French forces in China will not confine their attention to the occupation of the island of Formosa.

La Liberte says Admiral Courbet when reinforced may blockade the gulf of Petchili.

Dispatches from Hanoi says that affairs at the delta of the Red river are in a tranquil condition and the French positions are well defended.

It is reported that U. S. Minister Morton has, with the knowledge of Prime Minister Ferry, intimated to the government at Washington, that the time is opportune for American mediation between France and China.

LONDON, September 5.—The Times Hong Kong dispatch says: Heavy fighting in Tonquin between French and Chinese is reported from Chinese sources.

The Cholera Scourge.

ROME, September 5. The official bulletin shows the ravages of cholera in the last twenty-four hours as follows: New cases, 144, deaths 125.

In the past twenty four hours there were 122 fresh cases and 37 deaths at Naples.

A royal decree has been issued suspending from official duty all prefects and syndicates who instituted arbitrary local measures against cholera, or permitted such measures to be instituted. The people sent $2,000 to Naples to be used and distributed among the sufferers from cholera. The populace in Naples are now exciting themselves with the absurd suspicion that the arch-bishop is in complicity with physicians to poison them. At Spezia during the past twenty four hours there were 27 fresh cases and 7 deaths.

MADRID, September 5. Six cases of cholera and 4 deaths are reported from Novelda, 10 cases and 4 deaths at Monforte, and 2 deaths at Villna.

PARIS, September 5.—It is officially announced that cholera has appeared at Bordeaux, three deaths from the disease already.

A Long Search Ended

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Notes and Comments.

A library for women just established at Calcutta is an encouraging sign of the times in India.

Ginn, Heath & Co., of Boston, have just brought out the American copyrighted edition of Mr. Axel Gustafson's great book on "The Drink Question," which has already been accepted in England as the most complete book on the subject ever made, and one that will be the text book of temperance reformers for years to come.

We have frequently referred in this column to the excellent work which is being done by the English society for psychical research in the way of investigating the obscure phenomena of clairvoyance, presentiments, apparitions, &c. The power of spiritualism over its votaries has been due largely to the fact that until recently scientific men have treated these phenomena with indifference or contempt. Attempts have been made to account for these phenomena on the ground of coincidence or imagination.

The investigations of the society seem clearly to prove that this explanation is not adequate. They propound the general theory of thought-transference, i. e., that by some as yet undiscovered method thoughts vividly entertained in one mind can be and are transferred to other minds without any known physical medium of communication.

This would appear to be a reasonable explanation of an incident like the following narrated by the poet Robert Browning:

"An Italian count visiting Florence was brought to his house, without previous introduction, by an intimate friend. The count confessed to have great mesmeric or clairvoyant faculties, and declared, in reply to Mr Browning's avowed skepticism, that he would undertake to convince him, somehow or other, of his powers. He then asked Mr. Browning whether he had anything about him then or there which he would hand to him, and which was in any way a relic or memento. This, Mr. Browning thought, was, perhaps, because he habitually wore no sort of trinket or ornament, not even a watch guard, and might therefore turn out to be a safe challenge. But it so happened, by a curious accident, he was then wearing under his coat-sleeves some gold wrist-studs to his shirt which he had quite recently taken into wear, in the absence (by mistake of a sempstress) of his ordinary wrist buttons. He had never before worn them in Florence or elsewhere, and had found them in some old drawer, where they had lain forgotten for years. One of these studs he took out and handed to the count, who held it in his hand awhile, looking earnestly in Mr Browning's face, and then he said, as if much impressed, 'C'e qualche cosa che mi grida nell' orecchio.' Uccisione, uccisione!" (There is something here which cries out in my ear, 'Murder, murder!')

"And truly," says Mr. Browning, "these very studs were taken from the dead body of a great uncle of mine, who was violently killed on his estate in St Kitt's, nearly eighty years ago. These, with a gold watch and other personal objects of value, were produced in a court of justice, as proofs that robbery had not been the purpose of the slaughter, which was effected by his own slaves. They were then transmitted to my grandfather, who had his initials engraved on them, and wore them all his life. They were taken out of the nightgown in which he died and given to me, not my father, and I may add that I tried to get Count Gasparo to use his clairvoyance on the question of ownership, also, and that he readily hit upon something like the fact, mentioning a bed in a room, but he failed in attempting to describe the room—situation of the bed with respect to windows and door. The occurrence of my great uncle's murder was known only to myself, of all men in Florence, as I certainly was also my possession of the studs."

In this case the facts were in the mind of Mr Browning. If by some as yet occult power the mind of the clairvoyant could read the mind of Mr. Browning the mystery is solved.

It would seem as if some persons actually possessed this faculty in a marked degree, and that many persons have this faculty latent, and once or twice in their lives, perhaps, under extraordinary conditions, experience a manifestation of it.

The whole subject is one of great practical interest and it is a matter of congratulation that its investigation has been undertaken in a cool, scientific spirit. This realm has long enough been abandoned to superstition and charlatanry.

In this connection we are glad to invite the attention of our readers to the following advertisement which appears in the New York Nation:

"Thought Transference, Apparitions, Etc.—The Society for Psychical Research will be grateful for any good evidence bearing on such phenomena as thought-reading, clairvoyance, presentiments and dreams, noted at the time of occurrence and afterwards confirmed; unexplained disturbances in places supposed to be haunted; apparitions at the moment of death or otherwise; and of such other abnormal events as may seem to fall under somewhat the same categories. Communications to be addressed to the Hon. Sec. E. Gurney, 14 Dean's Yard, London, S. W., England, or (up to the end of August) to Prof. W. F. Barrett, Reception Rooms, British Association, Montreal. The society's proceedings (parts I-VI) can be obtained from Messrs. E & J. B. Young & Co., Cooper Union, Fourth avenue, New York, Messrs. Colby & Rich, 9 Montgomery Place, Boston; and Messrs Dawson Brothers, Montreal.

In very few religious papers of our day can be found editorials of such freshness and pith and suggestiveness as those which the Sunday School Times furnishes from week to week. It is good news that a number of these are to be gathered and put in permanent book form.

The following brief article on the Ministry of Sorrow is singularly excellent:

If you could reach that which is most distinctly human in man, you will find it in sorrow rather than joy, in suffering rather than in pleasure. Even the school-boy's voice takes a softer tone when he reads of the parting of Hector and Andromache, of the passionate heart break of Dido, of the thankless love which Catullus lamented; and the poets themselves surpass themselves when they sing of the pathos of human life, rather than of its joy or its splendor. Anguish penetrates the heart more deeply than enjoyment. Dante's Hell and Purgatory are living, writhing things; his Paradise is pale, passionless, and dead; Milton's Paradise Regained is only an echo to his Paradise Lost. The songs which appeal to all hearts are the songs of patient suffering and unsatisfied longing; for not all men have stood on the heights of lofty sentiment or unselfish endeavor; but all have stood at one time or another in the valley of pain. Herein there is a gate of opportunity for the wise teacher. When no other gate is open, a kindly look or tone may cause the gate of a common sympathy in human suffering to be unbarred. Men's pleasures are too often selfish, and tend to close the heart; their sufferings link them with all other men, and break down the bolts and bars which selfishness has framed. If others have suffered, the purpose of that suffering may have been to open their hearts that you might enter in with words of comfort and consolation and instruction; if you have suffered, perhaps it was that thereby you might gain a key to other hearts.

An interesting religious movement is reported from southern Russia, where a Jewish advocate, Joseph Rabinowitz, is organizing Jewish Christian communities. He has already been joined by some 200 families. The plan is to keep aloof from organic union with any of the Gentile-Christian churches, rejecting their misinterpretations of the teachings of Jesus, and adhering closely to Jewish customs, circumcision included. The founder looks hopefully forward to the ultimate planting of Palestine with these communities. The Evangelist prints this extract from the new sect's confession of faith:

We need a profound renewal; we must throw away our fool—the love of God—and welcome to our hearts in its stead love of truth for its own sake, and hatred of evil. For this we need a leader. He must be found among the posterity of Jacob. The only man in all the history of our people who unites in himself love to Israel, consecration of life, purity, depth and knowledge of mankind, earnestness in announcing the sins of his people, is Jesus of Nazareth. Therefore, we should hallow the name of our brother Jesus, and learn his words with devotion, and impress them upon our children. We should receive the convert, a deputation into our houses, and join them to the holy scriptures, which have been left us by our wise men of other generations.

The committee respectfully suggest that the several precincts hold their primaries on Wednesday, September 3d, 1884, at 2 o'clock p. m.

C. W. BARKER, Secretary.
JOHN CAMPBELL, Chairman.

The unjust article against General Adams in last night's Times was publicly denounced on the street by Postmaster Price as a lie—a campaign lie—General Adams not having exchanged six words with him on the political situation, but we understand from by-standers that he was not man enough to sign a statement to that effect.

The evening papers of yesterday afternoon contained the following notice:

CONTEST NOTICE.

The primary committee of precinct Number Six has been duly served with notice of a contest of the primary election held in Wards 1, 2 and 4, of the city of Colorado Springs, and said committee will sit at the office of the county judge at Colorado Springs, to hear said contest, on Saturday, September 6, at 8 o'clock a. m., and issue credentials to those delegates who are entitled to seats in the county convention; at which time and place all parties interested may attend if they so desire.

J. E. McINTYRE,
A. G. DRAPER,
J. SAUNDERS BROWN,
Precinct Committee.

At first reading it was hardly thought this could be seriously intended. But it was not intended for a joke, we were afterwards reliably informed.

So far as the regularly elected delegates are concerned there will be no attention paid to the contest. They will go to the convention with their certificates duly signed by the judges of election. The precinct committee has no power to go behind these certificates. The committee on credentials on the part of the county convention is the only official body that can examine them and their report must be submitted to the convention which is the sole arbiter of the right of any delegate to a seat in the convention. The precinct committee has no right whatever in the matter.

When our city was smaller it was the custom to hold a public meeting for a primary, instead of a regular election. The precinct committee called the primary. The chairman of the precinct committee called the meeting to order and nominated a temporary chairman. When the temporary chairman took his seat, the precinct committee had nothing further to do with the primary. The election was by ballot or viva voce as the caucus chose. The credentials of the delegates were signed by the chairman or secretary or both. If a precinct committee had after this undertaken to act as a returning board and revise the action of the chairman and secretary of this meeting, it would be a case parallel to this. Of course no such proceedings would have been had. They would have been denounced, no matter what the cause was. The only power to revise or change the credentials would be the county convention. When the precinct committee appointed the judges, arranged for the place of meetings and put the primaries under way their work was done.

Fair-minded men will not endorse or countenance such action. The committee will have too many honest intelligent men in it to give the slightest attention to any act of this self-appointed returning board.

But had the precinct committee this right, its notice is manifestly unfair. The notice was published last night and the examination is to take place early in the morning. It may be reasonably inferred that the parties who have brought these contests have been preparing for them since Wednesday. They have all the documents that affect the election in their possession and have every advantage. The parties attacked do not know the nature of the alleged facts on which the contest is based. They have no time to prepare nor present counter testimony. The precinct committee cannot be impartial judges as they were all strong partisans in the contest and worked at the polls. They will hear the charges against the legality of the election in wards one, three and four, there will be no time to prepare answers, and then the case will be decided on these ex-parte facts by a partisan body of judges. It is manifestly unfair even if the precinct committee had the right to do this, for in all election cases the parties are served with notice of the charges to be met. But the precinct committee has no such right. No denunciation is necessary for the notice carries with it its own denunciation.

PERSONAL.

Miss Van Zandt, who has met with success in opera abroad, is to be married shortly to Waldo Watrous, of New York.

William Henry Fireman, editor of the Manhattan Magazine, says that the cost of producing one number of the periodical is little more than $2,000.

Henry George is spending the summer at Jamaica, L. I., rewriting the manuscript which was accidentally destroyed of a book on the freedom of trade.

William H. Vanderbilt's account with Maud S. shows a profit of $19,000, nearly 50 per cent., leaving out the expense of keeping the pretty beast and her driver.

Mme. Adelina Patti has given a concert for the benefit of the hospitals near her Welsh summer home. Two years ago she did the same thing, and added $4,000 to the hospital funds.

Sir Moses Montefiore will be 100 years old October 21. It is proposed to establish a Montefiore professorship at the Hebrew Union college at Cincinnati in commemoration of the event.

Bishop Brondel, of Montana, has excommunicated John Maronate, a theatrical manager, from the Roman Catholic church for the sin of bringing Robert G. Ingersoll into Montana to lecture.

Colonel Dan Rice, the veteran circus clown, was recently presented with a $1,000 ring by a prominent rabbi of Baltimore as an evidence of appreciation by the Jewish people of his numerous donations.

General John C. Fremont has written a letter to the New York Mail and Express denying that he will speak for Butler. He says it is not necessary to say that he is still a republican, and will vote for Blaine.

A son of Henry Ward Beecher, captain of a steamboat plying along the Pacific coast, resides in Olympia, Oregon, and is described as a weather-beaten man, with a sun-browned straw hat, "looking like a mechanic."

The London Referee says that Ada Rehan "shows her remarkable genius by a remarkable drawl that would become monotonous were it not relieved by a species of chic quite unlike the French description of the article."

Effects of Temperature.

Nature.

The effects of temperature on man do not depend so much on the mean for the day, month or year as on the extremes, as when the days are hot and the nights comparatively cool the energy of the system becomes partially restored, so that a residence near the sea or in the vicinity of high mountains, in hot climates, is, other things being equal, less enervating than on the plains, as the night air is generally cooler. It is generally believed that hot climates are necessarily injurious to Europeans, by causing frequent liver derangements and diseases, dysentery, cholera and fevers. This, however, is to a certain extent, a mistake, as the recent medical statistical returns of our army in India show that in the new barracks, with more careful supervision as regards diet and clothing, the sickness and death rates are much reduced. Planters and others who ride about a good deal as a rule keep health, but the children of Europeans certainly degenerate, and after two or three generations die out, unless they intermarry with natives and make frequent visits to colder climate. This fact shows that hot climates, probably by interfering with the due performance of the various processes concerned in the formation and destruction of the body tissues, eventually sap the foundations of life among Europeans; but how far this result has been caused by bad habits as regards food, exercise and self-indulgence, I cannot say. Rapid changes of temperature in this country are often very injurious to the young and old, causing diarrhea and derangements of the liver when great heat occurs, and inflammatory diseases of the lungs, colds, etc., when the air becomes suddenly colder, even in summer.

He Went After His Hat.

Albany Argus.

"One day last week," said an Albany shoe dealer, "when I was alone in my store, a well-dressed stranger entered. He wore a white 'derby' (as the boys call it), which he laid carefully upon the counter near the door. Then he asked me for a pair of my very best custom-made laced shoes. A pair was soon placed at his disposal. Seating himself he tried on the right shoe. 'This is a splendid fit,' he said, 'but my feet are each of a different size, but pretty near the left one fits as well.' The left shoe was pulled on and he stood up and gazed proudly down at his extremities. 'Those are about right,' he said, 'but suppose you give me a pair a feet's smaller. There is no need of a man making his feet look larger than necessary.' I mounted the steps after another pair, when I heard a noise in the front of the store and looking up in time to see a small boy making away with the stranger's hat. 'Look, your hat!' I shouted; 'after him, quick!' The stranger seemed paralyzed for a moment, and then galloped out of the store in pursuit. 'That's all,' said the shoe-dealer, loudly. 'The new shoes went out with the man, and I have seen neither since. When he tried on the shoes he stamped his feet very naturally, and I suppose that was a signal for his confederate.'

Greeley's Flag.

New York Herald.

Lieutenant Greeley's flag is on free exhibition in the museum of the Military Service Institution on Governor's island, after having been for years in the Arctic circle, and having been unfurled nearer the north pole than any other flag in the world.

The flag was made by Mrs. Greeley, and was carried by Dr. Pavy to Greenland on a private Arctic expedition in 1880. He delivered it to Lieutenant Greeley at Rittenbenk, Greenland, in July, 1881. It was unfurled by Lieutenant Lockwood in latitude 83° 25' longitude 40° 46', the nearest point to the pole ever attained by man. On July 4, 1882, it flew from the summit of Mount Chester A. Arthur, the highest point in Grinnell Land, 4,500 feet above the sea. It was also displayed on the shores of the polar ocean, north of Greenland, and on the shores of Greeley's fiord, on the western polar ocean. Lieutenant Greeley used it as the flag of the launch Lady Greeley during the trips in the summer of 1882, and the retreat from Fort Conger.

Not that Kind.

Cincinnati Saturday Night.

Apropos of General Thomas, we recall an anecdote that was told of him during the war. While his headquarters were at Nashville a rough West Virginian—a captain—came to him for leave of absence. He said he desired to go home and visit his wife, whom he hadn't seen for a whole year. "A year?" echoed General Thomas; "why, my wife and I haven't seen each other in three years." "That may be all right for you," said the captain; "but mebbe my wife ain't that kind of folks!" A shout of laughter went up from the general's staff, in which Thomas joined heartily, and the man got his leave.

"THE USURPER!"

An Episode in Japanese History.

A Romance. Translated from the French of Judith Gautier by Abby L. Alger. $1.50.

R. H. Stoddard, the poet, writes of the "Usurper": "It is a romance in the best sense of the word. There is nothing in English fiction with which we can compare a romance like this unless it be Scott's 'Ivanhoe.' We do not propose to tell, even to indicate, the story of this romance, which is well conceived, shapely in its parts and consistent as a whole; not to hint at the personality of the different characters, two of which are as noble as they are beautiful; all that we propose to do is simply to say: Here is a prose poem of the Japan of A. D. 1015. It represents the life and manners of that country at that time—the splendid, strong life and the barbaric manners—and so represents them that they pass before the imagination like a gorgeous pageant, a pageant the picturesqueness of which recalls its only parallel in modern fiction—the background of George Ebers's 'Daughter of an Egyptian King.' If Mlle. Gautier is not a woman of genius she is nothing."

"The author of the work was one of the leading actors, or rather managing directors, in the coup d'etat which, in December, 1852, placed Louis Napoleon on the throne of France. In order that he might more effectually assist in that desperate stroke, he was at his own request appointed to the prefecture of police. To him, therefore, fell the task of arranging for the arrest of such of the deputies as were likely to give trouble; and he relates with something like pride how perfectly he succeeded in accomplishing his purpose. The notes of the editor are judiciously interspersed, and are useful in recalling facts to which no more than passing allusion is made in the text."—The Bookseller.

MINING MATTERS

Notes Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Correspondence Denver Tribune it p ablican

The recent discovery of rich placer territory along the Platte river, in the near vicinity of Montgomery, has been thoroughly prospected, and in point of value is equally rich with those brought to light about the same time near Breckenridge. That the Summit county territory has been more thoroughly developed is proven in the quantity of gold taken out during the past two months. Many of the tests made here were taken from gravel near the surface, which compares very unfavorably indeed with that deeper down, near bed rock formation. Near the river channel below North Star mountains, large nuggets existed in all the material so far found and the only material change that was noticed as one follows down the stream, is the gradual displacement by a finer quality of gold which yielded hundreds of colors to each pan worked. That the Breckenridge strike will eventually include all of the Mount Lincoln district, few deny who have at all acquainted themselves with the facts as brought out during last week's experiments. Many local inconveniences have heretofore prevented the same character of prospecting that has of late gained a foot hold that will result in soon exposing a concentrated gold wealth heretofore unknown in the placer diggings of Colorado.

The large extent of territory located within this belt, and favorable to the immense water rights tributary to the same vicinity, will accommodate a working force of many hundred men for years to come—an item of no small importance in calculating the real worth of this great mining enterprise, which promises to eclipse intrinsically the undertakings or any company yet organized for similar purposes in the state. Definite steps will be taken in a few weeks to open this treasure field of wealth, and the magnitude in developments will excel any placer enterprise now being operated this side of the Pacific slope, for the company are sanguine that the richness of the ground will warrant the expenditure of an extraordinary sum of money.

MINING NOTES

Mr. Moffett, at Gunnison, started his new "Jumbo" roaster Thursday. He expects to have his smelter turning out bullion in a day or two.

William Fullerton of Black Hawk is putting in a new forty horse power engine in his upper stamp mill on Clear Creek, to replace the fifteen horse power one which has been in use for several years.

Mr. John Cheney has leased of O. C. and L. S. Hansbrough the Blue Bird mine and mill on North Boulder, in Grand Island mining district, north of Caribou. This property has been lying idle for quite a length of time, but will now be steadily worked. Mr Cheney brought over about sixty pounds of silver amalgam, which he will have retorted.

Hayden Pass mines seem to be looking up, and by proper nursing a genuine mining boom may break out in that section. The Salida Mail says that Miles Standish has sold the Elizabeth and Plymouth Rock mines in Hayden Pass, near Villa Grove, to E. C. Atkins, one of the owners of the Josephine, and John S. Carey, for $15,500. Three thousand five hundred dollars was paid down, and the balance, $12,000, is to be paid on the first of next January. The purchasers have organized the mines under the name of the Plymouth Rock Mining Company.

The Prize mine, Nevada district, which is worked under the management of State Senator J. W. Bostwick, is paying its owners very handsomely. Up to the present time the property has cost the owners $83,780 01, including the machinery plant. A statement from the manager of the property shows a net profit for ten months ending July 31, of $70,809.13.

There are downs as well as ups in mining, and one man seems sometimes to catch all the kicks and cuffs of outrageous fortune, just as good fortune seems to lie in wait for others. A man who knows about the dark side of the story was cashing a check for $3 85 the other day when he remarked "I have been mining for four years, and that is the first clear money I have realized."

Rocky Mountain Presbytery.

The Rocky Mountain presbytery convened again yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The meeting opened with devotional exercises, after which the election of officers for the ensuing year was held. Rev. J. H. Barnett was selected as moderator to succeed Rev. B. F. Moore, who has acted for the past year, and W. W. M. Barber was chosen as clerk.

The following committees were elected—On state of religion, B. F. Moore, S. R. Shull, J. E. Wolsen. On supplies, W. W. M. Barber, R. A. Williams, John Cummings. Sunday schools, Messrs Shull, Barber and J. H. Lucas. On temperance, Messrs Moore, Shull, and Lucas. On minutes of the general assembly, Messrs Williams, Moore and J. E. Wallace.

In the afternoon considerable time was given to the discussion of missions and in the evening Rev. J. H. Barnett delivered a sermon. The presbytery will continue in session to-day.

The first round between McLaughlin and Flago, catch-as-catch-can, was won by McLaughlin in two minutes. The second bout, collar and elbow, was won by McLaughlin in nineteen minutes, giving him the match.

Authors' Protection

BERNE, September 5.—A conference opens here Monday next to draft an international law for the protection of the works of authors and artists. The governments of France, Italy, Austria and Germany will send delegates but no government delegates will be present from England or America. In the absence of complete governmental representation it is expected the conference will be a failure.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

TO THE

Constitution of the State of Colorado.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Is hereby given that at the general election to be held in the several wards and precincts of this state on the fourth (4) day of November, A. D., 1884, and pursuant to the provisions of an act of the general assembly of the state of Colorado, passed at the fourth session thereof, being an act entitled

"An act to submit to the qualified electors of the state of Colorado amendments to sections six (6), nineteen (19), and twenty two (22) of article five (5), of the constitution of the state of Colorado, concerning legislative department." Approved February 11, 1884. The following proposed amendments to the constitution of the state of Colorado will be submitted to the qualified electors of said state for their approval or rejection which when ratified by a majority of those voting thereon shall be valid as a part of the constitution of said state, that is to say "Section six, (6), of article five (5), of the constitution of the state of Colorado shall be amended so as to read as follows, to wit:"

"SECTION 6.—Each member of the general assembly, until otherwise provided by law, shall receive, as compensation for his services, seven dollars ($7 00) for each day's attendance and fifteen (15) cents for each mile necessarily traveled in going to and returning from the seat of government, and shall receive no other compensation, perquisite, or allowance whatsoever. No session of the general assembly shall exceed ninety days. No general assembly shall fix its own compensation."

"Section nineteen (19), of article five (5), of the constitution of the state of Colorado shall be amended so as to read as follows, to-wit:"

"SECTION 19.—No act of the general assembly shall take effect until ninety days after its passage, (except in case of emergency which shall be expressed in the act) (unless) the general assembly shall by a vote of two thirds of all the members elected to each house otherwise direct. No bill, except the general appropriation bill for the expenses of the government only, introduced in either house of the general assembly after the first thirty days of the session shall become a law."

"Section twenty-two (22), of said article five (5), of the constitution of the state of Colorado shall be amended so as to read as follows, to-wit."

"SECTION 22.—Every bill shall be read by title when introduced, and at length on two different days in each house, all substantial amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the members before the vote is taken on the bill, and no bill shall become a law except by a vote of a majority of all the members elected to each house, nor unless on its final passage the vote be taken by ayes and noes and the names of those voting be entered on the journal."

"And by said act submitting said amendments it is further provided that:"

"Each elector voting at said election and desirous of voting for or against all of the amendments as a whole, shall deposit in the ballot box a ticket whereon shall be written or printed the words, 'For the amendments,' or the words, 'Against the amendments.' Any such elector not desirous of voting as aforesaid may express his approval or rejection of any one or more of said amendments as in the other case; Provided, That he shall designate any amendment so approved or rejected by him, by number, in the order in which it occurs in this act, and that the votes cast for the adoption or rejection of said amendments or of either of them shall be canvassed and the result determined in the manner provided by the laws of the state for the canvass of votes for representative in congress."

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the state of Colorado, at Denver, in said state, this First day of August, A. D. 1884.

MAUD HOWE'S NOVEL.

"The San-Rosario Ranch!"

Third Thousand. $1.25.

This is an extract from the Boston Daily Advertiser's review, and there is no more able critical authority. "The 'San Rosario Ranch' belongs to a noble class of novels, it deals with the deepest feelings, the strongest emotions and the most powerful motives in human life. It is on a high plain, far above the petty strife, ambition and jealousy out of which 'society novels' are manufactured. The book is written in a spirit of large sympathy, and without one touch of censoriousness or ridicule. This sympathy is far reaching, it is given to the Indian, driven from his mission, to the faithful Chinaman, killed by the fury of a white scoundrel, to the rich and coarse Irishman, living in splendor and in fear of his butler—of all of them some good is told; the best side is the one that is made prominent. The book is not a sermon, although its tone is so grave and its spirit so earnest, it is a good, warm love story, with plenty of life, of incident and of narrow escapes, and it is a very attractive picture of California life and California people."

THE BEST

SUMMER BOOKS.

GUERNDALE. By "J. S. of Dale." Paper edition, 50 cents, cloth, $1 25.

The romance for no other name properly describes it is full of delicacy and beauty. The author has given us a story such as we have not had in this country since the time of Hawthorne.—Boston Advertiser.

THE CRIME OF HENRY VANE. By "J. S. of Dale." 1 vol, 12mo, $1.

It is difficult to phrase the admiration we feel with ... the charm of extravaganza ... It is one of the most notable contributions to American literature.—Boston Courier.

NEWPORT. A Novel. By George Parsons Lathrop. Summer edition. 1 vol, paper, 50 cents, cloth, $1 25.

Mr Lathrop's best novel.—The Nation.

THE FAIRFAXES OF TIPTON. By Miss Virginia M. Thompson. $1 25.

A charming and striking story of New England life, strong in the delineation of its characters, dramatic in the management of the situations and interesting in its plot.

THE LADY OR THE TIGER? AND OTHER STORIES. By Frank R. Stockton. $1.

No magazine story for a very long time has given rise to such animated discussion as Mr. Stockton's enigmatical situation. The Lady or the Tiger, "His Wife's Deceased Sister," "The Transferred Ghost," "That Same Old Coon," "Mr. Tolman," "The Training of Parents," "Every Man His Own Letter Writer," and the other stories which make up this collection, are equally remarkable for their novelty, surprise of plot, and cleverness.

THE KING'S MEN. A Tale of To-morrow. By Robert Grant, John Boyle O'Reilly, J. S. of Dale, and John T. Wheelwright. 1 vol, 12mo, cloth, $1.25.

This daring and ingenious story of the future is unquestionably destined to be the most widely discussed book of the summer. The brilliant literary partnership which produced it has aroused the keenest curiosity, and certainly the experiment has been the boldest in the history of literary collaboration. Of the plot, or of what can be gathered from the story's motto concerning the course of politics in the reign of King George the Fifth, it need only be said that the audacity of the conception is fully supported by the admirable telling and exciting incident of the story. The book is crowded with action and intense in its complication, and yet the powers which the authors have shown elsewhere are never lost in its rapid movement.

Though not a political document the story, "The End of New York," by Park Benjamin will be one of peculiar interest to those who, a few years ago, were disposed to criticise Mr. Blaine's foreign policy. It will be found in the midsummer number of Stories by American Authors. For sale everywhere, 50 cents.

"A brilliant series" is what the Boston Courier calls Scribner's Stories by American Authors. Five volumes are now published, containing nearly thirty strikingly individual and meritorious tales. Bound in cloth, 50 cents each.

These books are for sale at all bookstores, etc. Sent postpaid upon receipt of price by

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO'S

NEW BOOKS.

A COUNTRY DOCTOR. A novel. By Sarah Orne Jewett, author of "Deephaven," "Country By-Ways," etc. 16mo, $1 25.

In this novel Miss Jewett uses on a larger scene and with increased effect the qualities which have made her short stories so popular and so thoroughly delightful. A woman physician figures in it, but the story is quite unlike the novels by Mr Howells and Miss Phelps in which women physicians are the heroines. It gives wonderfully accurate pictures of New England characters, customs and scenery, the heroine is "one of our girls" and as such will charm readers as few heroines do in current novels. The freshness, the sincerity, the helpful sympathy, which render Miss Jewett's stories at once so attractive and wholesome, pervade "A Country Doctor," and can hardly fail to make it one of the most widely popular and welcome of this summer's novels.

THE FATE OF MANSFIELD HUMPHREYS. With the Episode of Mr. Washington Adams in England, and an Apology. By Richard Grant White. 16mo, $1 25.

This is one of the most entertaining of "international" books, in which the mutual misconceptions and prejudices of Englishmen and Americans are developed and illustrated.

PHŒBE. A Novel. By the author of "Rutledge." 16mo, $1,25.

An American story in character and incidents, told with so much life and spirit that it will be hailed as a special boon by novel readers. To a multitude looking for summer reading, this story needs no other recommendation than that it is by the author of "Rutledge."

THE AMERICAN HORSEWOMAN. By Elizabeth Karr. Illustrated, 12mo, $2 00.

An admirably practical book. The selection and management of a horse, all the details of equipment, every separate article of dress that the rider should wear, and the making of it, all these are described specifically; and the book is made still more useful by illustrative cuts, the whole forming a manual of great value to any lady who would become thoroughly skillful in the equestrienne art.

SUMMER. From the Journals of H. D. Thoreau, author of "Walden," "Cape Cod," etc. Edited by H. G. O. Blake. With a map of Concord. 12mo, gilt top, $1 50.

This book comprises selections from Thoreau's Journals containing observations and reflections during the summers of many years. Some of these are descriptive, with that fine photographic accuracy which marks Thoreau's pictures of natural scenes. Other passages contain those subtle reflections on society, religion, laws, literature, which also characterize whatever Thoreau wrote, and which pique the curiosity and stimulate the minds of his readers.

Dr. Rose returned yesterday from Schuffield, Gunnison county, where he has been since early in June, looking after his mining interests. On account of the shortness of the season there has not been much work done, but the prospects for another year, he says, are very bright.

At a special meeting of the W. S. Jackson hose company held last evening, the question of running an excursion to Grand Canon either some time this month or during the G. A. R. encampment in October was considered and a committee appointed to confer with the Rio Grande officials in regard to rates.

The Denver & Rio Grande will make a rate of one and one fifth fare for delegates and alternates for the round trip for all points in Colorado, to the republican state convention in this city. From Denver and Pueblo the same rate will be made to the general public on the evening of the 9th inst., and the morning of the 10th inst.

A glee club has been organized, composed of the best local talent in Colorado Springs, to furnish music during the meeting of the convention next week. Major Macomber has written an interesting campaign song, the music for it being composed by Mr. A. B. Irving. An effort will be made to keep up the organization during the campaign.

The county superintendent of schools, Mr. B. A. P. Eaton, has just issued the certificates to the applicants examined at the third quarterly examination held last week. Out of the 14 applicants examined one was given a first grade certificate, six second grade, four third grade, and three failed entirely. Another examination will be held in November.

The skating rink will be open to night and the band will be in attendance. The proprietors did think some of opening the rink for the season on the 10th, but they have concluded to postpone it to October 1. In the mean time the floor will be planed down, skylights placed in the roof and the interior of the rink painted. The skates will all be repaired.

William Bush has put up some choice small fruits, and not so very small, either, for their size, to be sent to the Denver exposition and the world's fair at New Orleans. These include the White Grape currant, the Early Richmond, Red Cherry and Red Dutch currant, the Morello cherry, and the following varieties of gooseberries: The Champaigne, Red Warrington, White Smith and the Crown Bob. These fruits are now on exhibition in Mr. Bush's store window, and are as handsome a lot of fruit as one would wish to see.

Yesterday morning while Mr. C. F. Albrecht was driving from Colorado Springs to Manitou and while near the bridge just beyond Colorado City, the horse he was driving became frightened at getting his feet tangled up in a piece of wire in the road. The horse started on a run and Mr. Albrecht was unable to obtain control of him. In order to obtain more purchase on the lines he braced his feet on the dash board, which gave way, precipitating Mr. Albrecht on the cross-bar of the thills. The horse then began kicking and injured Mr. Albrecht quite seriously. Dr. Kimball, who attended him, says that his left ear was nearly cut in two and he is afraid that he has received internal injuries.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL.
Fourth Year.
MRS. M. T. SHROPSHIRE, Principal.

Mrs. Shropshire takes pleasure in announcing to her patrons, friends and the public generally that having spent the past two months at the east in the interests of her school, she is prepared to offer to the youth of both sexes unexcelled advantages for the acquirement of a thorough English and classical education. A new feature this year, in this progressive and justly successful school, will be the introduction of the LELAND INDUSTRIAL AND DECORATIVE ART SYSTEM, which, while it will not be allowed to interfere with the regular studies, will go much toward refining, elevating and ennobling the character of the students. Our design, like that of Mr. Leland of Philadelphia, is to cultivate a taste for the beautiful and useful conjointly; to call forth and develope the originality of each and every pupil; to teach all self reliance, and to prepare them to become useful as well as ornamental members of society. In order that all interested may fully appreciate the opportunity now offered, Mrs. Shropshire extends a cordial invitation to such as desire further information to call at her residence any day between 3 and 5 or after 7.30 o'clock p. m., when she will take pleasure in explaining the inestimable advantages to both children and adults, for the latter of whom there will be private classes. Circulars regarding the school can be obtained at the Institute. h-31-1m
